Get your 150 Play List grant applications in: The second deadline is April 24th

Spring is here and if you haven't yet registered a 150 Play List event or program – now's the time! We've had an incredible response with applications being submitted from across the country. That means that Canadians are sitting less and moving more... but it also means this second granting cycle may be our last!

Register your 150 Play List events and programs HERE and submit for a grant HERE by April 24th in order to be considered for this cycle's funding. You must register your event or program in order to be eligible, so get started today:
