

The background of the entire poster is a photograph of the Fairmont Le Château Frontenac in Québec, a large, ornate, multi-story building with many windows and a prominent central tower. The building is set against a clear blue sky. In the foreground, there is a snowy hillside with some trees and a stone wall.

A film strip graphic runs diagonally across the bottom half of the poster. It contains several small images: a curler in a blue and black uniform, a group of people socializing, and a curler in a grey shirt and white cap. The main image at the bottom shows a curler in a grey shirt and white cap in the foreground, holding a yellow handle and pushing a stone. Another curler in a blue and black uniform is visible in the background on the left.

«Nous sommes ravis que nos traditions se poursuivent en accueillant des équipes masculines, féminines et mixtes!»
