

CAMIL LAROUCHE

INDUCTED IN 2024

SUMMARY

Mr. Camil Larouche was born in 1953 in Dolbeau, Quebec. Mr. Larouche began his curling career as a player in 1977, however he has been better known for his remarkable contribution as a curling coach for the past thirty years.

Mr. Larouche graduated from Université de Montréal and went on to become a physical education teacher, where he worked for 34 years. Starting in 1991, he began applying his teaching skills to curlers, both young and old, to develop a pool of talented competitors.

As a coach, he has four appearances at the Canadian Junior Championship, with many medals collected over the years, including a gold and silver medal, as well as an impressive bronze medal at the 1999 World Junior Championship in Sweden. And of course, we can't forget the bronze medal won at the Quebec Games in 1993.

He also coached at the Scotties 6 times between 2001 and 2012, bringing home both a silver and a bronze medal. Other notable appearances include the Canada Cup, the Continental Cup, and two appearances at the Olympic Trials.

Mr. Larouche's natural leadership quality lends itself to him being a very well-respected person and coach in the curling community. It is with great honour and joy that Curling Quebec welcomes Mr. Camil Larouche into the Hall of Fame as a builder.
